

Andrew A. Szarejko

Ph.D. Candidate, Department of Government, Georgetown University
andrewszarejko@gmail.com | szarejko.georgetown.domains

---

Education

- Georgetown University
  - Ph.D. Program in Government, August 2014 – Present
  - Dissertation Committee: Andrew Bennett (chair), Daniel Nexon, and David Edelstein
  - Dissertation: Settlers, Elites, and the Standing Army in America's Indian Wars, 1783–1890
- University of Miami (FL)
  - B.A., Political Science and International Studies, August 2009 – May 2013
  - Honors Thesis Advisors: Joseph M. Parent and Roger E. Kanet
  - Semester Abroad: Spring 2011, Koç University (Istanbul, Turkey)

Refereed Publications

- (with Matthew E. Carnes) "Assessing an Undergraduate Curriculum: The Evolving Roles of Subfields, Methods, Ethics, and Writing for Government Majors," PS: Political Science and Politics Vol. 50, No. 1 (2018): 178-182.
- "The Soldier and the Turkish State: Toward a General Theory of Civil-Military Relations," Perceptions Vol. 19, No. 2 (2014): 139-158.

Papers under Review at Refereed Journals

- "Do Accidental Wars Happen? Evidence from America's Indian Wars," Journal of Global Security Studies, revise-and-resubmit decision received July 2019.
- "Bringing the Rise of the United States into 'Introduction to International Relations'," under review since August 2019.

Other Publications

- Review of A Post-Exceptionalist Perspective on Early American History: American Wests, Global Wests, and Indian Wars by Carroll P. Kakel III, American Indian Quarterly (forthcoming).
- "Bringing Indigenous Experiences into International Relations," guest blog post, The Duck of Minerva (September 12, 2019).
- Review of Cult of the Irrelevant: The Waning Influence of Social Science on National Security by Michael C. Desch, Law and Liberty (June 24, 2019).
- "Syria, Afghanistan, and the Lessons of the Indian Wars," Indian Country Today (February 11, 2019).
- Review of American Power and Liberal Order: A Conservative Internationalist Grand Strategy by Paul D. Miller, Law and Liberty (July 10, 2018).

- (with Ariya Hagh and Laila Wahedi) “Revisiting Trump’s Challenges to Doctoral Students: A Round of Trump Bingo,” guest blog post, The Duck of Minerva (March 8, 2017).
- (with Ariya Hagh and Laila Wahedi) “Being a Doctoral Student in the Time of Trump: Six Challenges,” guest blog post, The Duck of Minerva (December 6, 2016).
- Review of Maxwell’s Demon and the Golden Apple: Global Discord in the New Millennium by Randall Schweller, War on the Rocks (June 4, 2014).
- Review of Turkey and the Arab Spring: Leadership in the Middle East by Graham E. Fuller, Insight Turkey Vol. 16, No. 3 (2014): 225-226.

Teaching

- Georgetown University School of Continuing Studies
  - Spring 2020 – History of the International System
    - Independent study course for undergraduates, enrollment to be determined.
  - Summer 2019 – Introduction to International Relations
    - 13 of 15 students responded to course evaluations and gave the course an average overall score of 5 out of 5. More information is available on my personal website.
  - Fall 2018 – How the U.S. Government Works & How to Get Involved
    - I developed an hour-long lecture on U.S. foreign policy, quiz questions, and a list of additional readings for an online course involving a series of other modules designed by Georgetown professors. A link is available on my personal website.
- Teaching Assistantships (undergraduate courses at Georgetown unless otherwise noted)
  - International Security – Prof. Michael Brown (Fall 2019)
    - George Washington University, master’s program in Security Policy Studies
  - Understanding Trump’s Foreign Policy – Prof. Daniel Byman (Spring 2018 and Spring 2017, one-credit course)
  - Comparative Political Systems – Prof. Charles King (Spring 2017)
  - Elements of Political Theory – Prof. Joshua Cherniss (Fall 2016)
  - Introduction to International Relations – Prof. Andrew Bennett (Spring 2015) and Prof. Lise Howard (Fall 2014)

Editorial Work

- H-Diplo
  - Teaching Editor, August 2019 – Present
    - I work on H-Diplo’s teaching resources related to international relations and diplomatic history, including the planning of teaching-related, roundtable-style publications and expansion of the network’s syllabus archive.
- International Studies Quarterly
  - Managing Editor, September 2017 – December 2018
    - I processed all submitted manuscripts for ISQ until the point of acceptance. This entailed checking several hundred manuscripts to ensure they met ISQ’s submission requirements, handling routine communication with authors, and working with senior editors to ensure all manuscripts were processed in a timely manner.

Grants and Research Assistantships

- Georgetown Graduate School of Arts and Sciences Research Project Award (Spring 2019) - $400
- Georgetown Department of Government Summer Research Grant (Summer 2018) - $5,000
- Prof. Andrew Bennett (Summer 2017)
  - I assisted with research on multiple projects, including works on the utility of case studies and on rhetorical entrapment in U.S.-China relations.
- Prof. Charles King (Summer and Fall 2016)
  - I assisted with research for a book, Gods of the Upper Air: How a Circle of Renegade Anthropologists Reinvented Race, Sex, and Gender in the Twentieth Century.
- Prof. Matthew Carnes (Spring 2016)
  - I assisted with an undergraduate curriculum assessment by developing a curriculum map, organizing focus groups, and fielding a survey of government majors.

Professional Development

- Graduate Student Symposium, Center for the Study of Statesmanship at the Catholic University of America – October 2019.
- American Political Science Association Annual Meeting, Short Courses
  - “Indigenous Political Science: Opportunities for Innovation and Inclusion” (2019).
  - “Understanding Complexity: Applications for Political Science and Policy Research & Theory Development” (2017).
  - “Causal Case Studies: Comparing, Matching and Tracing” (2014).
- Apprenticeship in Teaching Program, Georgetown University Center for New Designs in Learning and Scholarship – Spring/Summer 2019.
- American University Conference on Teaching, Research, and Learning – January 2019.
- ISA-Northeast Methodology Workshop – November 2017.
- Clements Center Summer Seminar on History and Statecraft – July 2016.
- Lumen Christi Institute Summer Seminar, “Aquinas’s Five Ways and Where They Lead” – June 2016.
- Summer Institute on Conducting Archival Research (SICAR) – May 2016.
- Hertog Seminars for Young Professionals
  - “Lessons of the Iraq War” with Vance Serchuk, August 2015.
  - “World Order and American Foreign Policy” with Robert Kagan, January 2014.
- Department of State Critical Language Scholarship – Turkish, 2012 and 2013.

Conference Presentations

- 2019 - APSA Annual Meeting, ISA-Northeast Regional Conference, James A. Barnes Club Graduate Student History Conference.

- 2018 – APSA Annual Meeting, ISA-Northeast Regional Conference, NPSA Annual Conference.
- 2017 – APSA Annual Meeting, ISA-Northeast Regional Conference, ISSS-ISAC Annual Conference, ISA-South Regional Conference, NPSA Annual Conference.
- 2016 – ISA-Northeast Regional Conference.
- 2015 – ISA-Northeast Regional Conference.
  - A full list of conference papers is available on my personal website.

Service

- International Studies Association (ISA)
  - Member of the ISA-Northeast Governing Council, November 2016 – Present
- Georgetown University Graduate Political Science Association
  - President, May 2016 – May 2017; Vice President, May 2015 – May 2016.
    - In addition to routine event planning, in this capacity I initiated a new pedagogy workshop for graduate students in the department.
- Georgetown University International Theory and Research Seminar (Discussant)
  - Bentley Allan, “Designating the Climate: The Geopolitics of Climate Science, 1945-1961,” September 23, 2019.
  - Paul Musgrave, “Federation of Liberty: International Society and Hierarchy Among the United States,” February 4, 2019.
  - Daniela Donno, “Authoritarian Institutions and Women’s Rights,” April 3, 2017.
  - Jasen Castillo, “Alliance Defection and the Rise of China,” February 8, 2016.
  - Joshua Busby, “Social Movements and Market Transformations: The Contrasting Cases of HIV/AIDS and Climate Change,” March 30, 2015.
- Georgetown University Political Science Graduate Working Group (Discussant)
  - Cole Livieratos, “Formative Experiences and Political Costs: Propaganda in U.S. Foreign Policy,” March 22, 2018.
  - Benjamin Mishkin, “The Politics of the Holocaust in Lithuania,” October 11, 2016.
- Pi Sigma Alpha National Student Research Conference
  - Discussant/chair for a four-student IR panel (February 2015, 2017, and 2019).

Invited Presentations and Professional Experience

- Presentation for the Cato Institute Junior Scholars Symposium, “Settler Strategies: How the Public Led Elites into America’s Indian Wars,” October 26, 2019.
- Presentation for the Cultural Center of the Shawnee Tribe of Oklahoma, “Settlers, Elites, and Shawnee: On the Origins of the Northwest Indian War,” May 31, 2019.
- Intern, Bipartisan Policy Center, Foreign Policy Project (June – August 2014)
- Intern, Center for Arms Control and Non-Proliferation (January – May 2014)
- Intern, National Consortium for the Study of Terrorism and Responses to Terrorism, Government Actions in Terror Environments Project (August – December 2013)
- Intern, Hudson Institute Center for Political-Military Analysis (August – December 2013)